Ku-ring-gai Council Christmas Morning Tea

Phil Gilmour, Co-ordinator of Aged Services at the Council, has asked us to host a morning tea for their clients and volunteers on Monday morning, 4th December in our Church Hall at 10 am. The Council is providing everything – food, drinks, tea, coffee, but we would be very glad of a few people to help pour cups of tea and set up the hall. If you could help from 9.30 am on Monday, 4th for a short while, it would be much appreciated. Please let Sue Conde know if you can help.

Annual General Meeting and Elections, 17 December

The date for the AGM is now Sunday, 17th December, following morning worship. We apologise for the change in date.

Nominations are now open for election to Church Council and for Pastoral Carers – please prayerfully consider the leadership of our congregation, and approach someone you would like to nominate for either Church Council or as a Pastoral Carer.

Organ Concert

A very big and grateful thank you to everyone who helped to make the Organ Concert last Sunday such a success. It was a real community event, and we have had many wonderful comments and feedback this week – with many people asking, ‘when is the next concert?’ Special thanks to Ruth and Rosemary and all the ladies who supplied the delicious afternoon tea which was much appreciated. The performers were superb, and it was a fabulous occasion to launch our new organ. Thank you!
